

TITLE: Registration of overseas trained Dentists holding the ADC certificate.

References: Dental Practitioners Registration Act 2001 s44(1)(c)

Policy: For Dentists who have trained overseas and hold the ADC certificate, the Board will include on the Register, Australian Dental Council certificate (ADC and the year of issue). The particulars shall be recorded as, ADC (THE YEAR OF ISSUE OF THE ADC CERTIFICATE).

Background: Historically, the Committee on Overseas Professional Qualifications was the body recognised by the Board as carrying out the function of certifying that the person has successfully completed all stages of the examination set by that Committee from 1971 to 1982. The bodies subsequent were the Australian Dental Examining Council from 1983 to 1995 and the Australian Dental Council since 1996.
